KILDRESS PARISH BULLETIN

18th January 2026

Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

Today's Gospel is unusual insofar as John the Baptist, rather than Jesus, has centre stage. John is giving a report of his impression of Jesus and highlights the fact that Jesus is the one they have been waiting for – he is indeed the Chosen One of God.

Artists frequently depict John the Baptist with one arm outstretched pointing to Jesus. This image accurately reminds us that John was a man of humility who recognised that Jesus had a life-giving message that could change people's lives.

As we stand on the threshold of a new year, this might be a good time to think about the people in our lives whose example or advice pointed us in the direction of a fuller life:

* Who has helped you to appreciate the importance of Jesus and his message?

* Who helped you to grow in faith?

* Who formed you in your understanding of the Gospel message?

By the same token we might ask ourselves:

* How am I enabling others to follow Jesus?

* Am I a good role model for other people in terms of witnessing to my faith in what I do and say?

* Does my behaviour and lifestyle inspire or diminish the faith of others?

* How do I measure up to the criteria of what it means to be a Christian?

By virtue of our Baptism, we are called to witness to Jesus; we are asked to point away from ourselves and draw attention to him. But the question is: are we open, like John the Baptist, to listening to the Lord speaking to our hearts?

With every blessing, Monsignor Colum.

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD FOR OUR OWN DES KEENAN

The Pride of Tyrone Awards ceremony was held in Canavan's Restaurant last Saturday night. There were 9 groups of awards on the night and the last one was the Lifetime Achievement Award. This was presented by Peter Canavan to Kildress' Des Keenan for his tireless fundraising efforts over 40 years. Over that time Des has raised half a million pounds for many charities through various fundraising ventures - from walking the roads around Northern Ireland collecting money in buckets to organizing functions at £1,000 per table.

In his acceptance speech Des was very anxious to point out that he may have initiated fundraising but it was the marvellous support from the Parish of Kildress and surrounding areas which brought each venture to fruition. He had a special word of thanks to the many business people who supported him. Des also wants to mention that he has done his last fundraiser and now is the time for someone else to step up.

Congratulations, Des, on the thoroughly deserved recognition of your wonderful efforts!
