KILDRESS PARISH BULLETIN

25th January 2026

Third Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioner and Gentle Reader,

In today's Gospel St Matthew describes how Jesus called four fishermen to leave their boats and their families to follow him into a way of life that was challenging and unpredictable.

Andrew, Peter, John and James were probably good fishermen who knew well the difficulties of wresting a livelihood from the deep waters of the local lake. They were strong robust men, who knew how to cast nets and mend boats and attend to all the other responsibilities of working on the Sea of Galilee. But now they were going to leave all of that behind and follow an itinerant preacher from Nazareth.

Maybe it's just as well that Matthew doesn't record the reaction of Peter's wife when he went home to tell her that he was going 'to burn the boats' or describe the reaction of Zebedee when he realised his two sons were leaving the family business.

We must admit - the men Jesus called would appear to be unlikely candidates for the work he has in mind. And yet their decision to accept the invitation would lead them through an extraordinary journey of doubt and betrayal, denial and rejection to an ever-deepening conviction that Jesus was indeed the Son of God, the Light of the World.

May we too respond with courage, and despite our limitations, realise that we can bring the light of Christ into this darkened world because we carry his Spirit in our hearts.

With every blessing, Monsignor Colum.
